Big Bank Records BIO

Big Bank Records is keeping it street, by the street, for the street, because we are the streets. Once again from the cold streets of Richmond, California, the place where MASTER P first gassed up the tank and gathered the street hustle game that he had learned from this small under-developed ghetto town. At the time in 1989, Richmond was 2nd highest in the nation for the murder rate because the lack of jobs, education, and the drug wars were at their peak. He told the streets what he had witnessed and made music that the streets could see and understand because Richmond is AKA the Heart of the Ghetto. As time went on he never came back to many unbroken promises cause of money now had, money he had borrowed, or because this little city was just too ghetto.

From city to city, from hood to hood, ghetto to ghetto, our street promotional team is ready to hit the street hard with CD giveaways, flyers, posters, stickers, t shirts at clubs, colleges, and other summer-time events. Big Bank Records is set and ready to distribute a 10-album package starting with these 5 albums:

- Bay Boys – Group Album
- Go Big – Compilation
- Kool Aide – Diary of a Mad Black Man Solo Album
- Popa Nick – Mr Under Rated Solo Album
- Big Bank Records Da Camp – Compilation
